TO PROVIDE FOR APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

Mr. Lyle offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 236, To provide for appointment of Committee to Investigate State Eleemosynary Institutions.

Whereas, On Wednesday, April 16, 1941, the Governor of Texas sent a message to this House, in which he stated:

"The first and most pressing need in our eleemosynary set-up is a system of caring for the inmates, which will be human instead of bestial. Complaints are continually coming to the Board of Control which set forth accounts of unbelievable treatment accorded inmates of our eleemosynary system; accounts which picture horrible beatings, tortures, and even death. * * *"

And, Whereas, If the complaints referred to by the Governor in his message are substantially true, even in part, a condition exists in our eleemosynary institutions that, while almost unbelievable, reflects a situation which indicates we have people in authority in these institutions or some of them, who are not only grossly and criminally negligent, but are criminal in fact and conditions that bring the entire Government of the State into disrepute and disgrace;

Therefore Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives That a committee consisting of five Members be appointed to make a thorough investigation of the conditions existing in all of our eleemosynary institutions, especially with reference to the treatment of the inmates of such institutions and the character of employees therein, with special reference to the complaints called to our attention by the Governor "which set forth accounts of unbelievable treatment accorded inmates of our eleemosynary institutions, accounts which picture horrible beatings, tortures and even death."

Said committee shall have power to summon witnesses and compel their attendance upon its sessions, and take evidence concerning the conduct of any and all State officers and employees in charge of or connected with any and all the State's eleemosynary institutions, and report said committee's findings with reference to said matters, together with the substance of such evidence as in the committee's opinion might be pertinent to its findings. Said committee shall report such findings and evidence as it has been able to obtain during the Regular Session of the 47th Legislature and if it has not completed the thorough investigation provided herein by the adjournment of the Regular Session of the 47th Legislature, then it shall continue its investigation after such adjournment until it has completed same, and then file its final report with the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Said committee may hold its sessions at the Capitol or at the seat of any of the eleemosynary institutions, and cause witnesses to appear at any place where said sessions are held, and if sessions are held at any place other than in the County of Travis, the committee shall be entitled to pay from the fund hereinafter appropriated its actual necessary traveling expenses.

There is hereby appropriated out of the Contingent Fund of the 47th Legislature such sum as may be necessary to meet the payment of the necessary expenses incurred by said committee, which amount shall in no event be in excess of the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500.00).

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Lowry moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. Isaacks moved to table the motion by Mr. Lowry.

The motion to table prevailed.

Mr. Alsup offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend House Simple Resolution No. 236 by adding to the last paragraph the following:

"All warrants or vouchers issued under this resolution must be signed by the chairman of the committee and approved by the Speaker of the House and the Chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expense."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Reed of Bowie offered the following amendment to the resolution:

"Amend House Simple Resolution No. 236 by striking out words and figures Twenty-five Hundred ($2500.00) Dollars and insert in lieu thereof words and figures Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars."

Mr. Lowry offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Reed of Bowie:

Amend House Simple Resolution No. 236 by substituting in proper place $1,000.00.

Mr. Hanna raised a point of order on further consideration of the resolution at this time, on the ground that the time allotted for the consideration of resolutions has expired.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Mr. Bean moved that the time allotted for the consideration of resolutions be suspended until the above resolution is disposed of.

The motion to suspend the Rules prevailed.

Mr. Lyle moved to table the substitute amendment by Mr. Lowry.

The motion to table prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Lyle, the amendment by Mr. Reed of Bowie was tabled.

Mr. Dove offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend House Simple Resolution No. 236, page 2, between the two paragraphs on said page, by inserting the following:

"Said committee shall have the same power heretofore granted the Eleemosynary Committee in H. S. R. 174."

The amendment was adopted.

Question recurring on the resolution by Mr. Lyle, as amended, yeas and nays were demanded.

The resolution, as amended, was adopted by the following vote:

RELATIVE TO LOCAL AND UNCONTESTED BILL CALENDAR

Mr. Gilmer offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 237, Relative to local and uncontested bill calendar.

Whereas, It is considered that more orderly and deliberate consideration would be accorded local and uncontested bills if each calendar therefor, when completed, was available to the membership of the House of Representatives for a reasonable length of time before action thereon; and

Whereas, It is considered that twenty-four (24) hours would be a sufficient and reasonable period of time to consider and investigate such a calendar; and

Whereas, It is further considered that under circumstances and conditions herein contemplated, if objections are made to consideration of a bill, that same would be made in good faith and should be given effect; and

Whereas, It is considered that Section 6 of Rule 18 of the "Rules of the House" should be amended and enlarged so as to contain the provisions herein suggested; therefore,

Be It Resolved, That paragraph 2 of Section 6 of Rule 18 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended so as to read as follows:

"No local or uncontested bills shall be placed before the House for consideration unless said bill shall have first been referred to and favorably reported by the Committee on Local and Uncontested Bills whose duty it shall be to make up a calendar for a period designated by the House for the consideration of local and uncontested bills, and placing said bills on this calendar, in accordance with their numbers, nor shall any local and uncontested bill be placed before the House for consideration even though the same has been reported favorably by the Committee on Local and Uncontested Bills, unless the same appears on the calendar prepared by the committee. Such calendar shall be prepared, printed and laid on the desk of each member at least twenty-four (24) hours before action by the House.

The provisions of this rule cannot be suspended except by unanimous consent of the House."

Be It Further Resolved, That paragraph 3 of Section 6 of Rule 18 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be also amended to hereafter read as follows:

"During consideration of local and uncontested bills, the Chair shall allow the sponsor three minutes to explain the measure, and his time shall not be extended except by unanimous consent of the House. This rule shall have precedence over all other rules limiting time for debate. If it develops that any bill on the local and uncontested calendar is not in fact local, as defined by the rules, or is to be contested on the floor of the House, the Speaker shall withdraw the bill from consideration, and it shall take its place in the regular order of business established by the rules, and shall not during the same session, be again placed upon the local and uncontested bill calendar. A bill shall be considered contested and so withdrawn upon notice being given by three Members that it is their intention to oppose the same, and such bill shall not be further considered upon such calendar."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT

The Speaker laid before the House, as postponed business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. J. R. No. 21, Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court.

The resolution having heretofore been read second time.

Mr. Isaacks offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend House Joint Resolution No. 21 by striking out all after the resolving clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Sections 2 and 3 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Article V. Sec. 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; in other matters, until otherwise provided by law, the jurisdiction of the Court shall be exercised under such regulations and orders as the Court by a majority vote may prescribe. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this State and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court of record, or such lawyer and judge together at least seven years. Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at a general election, shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of any Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The six Commissioners then holding under appointment as provided by the Civil Statutes shall upon taking the Constitutional oath of office, become Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, and the terms of office of those two who were appointed in 1939, or who were appointed to fill an unexpired term beginning in that year shall expire on December 31, 1944; the terms of office of those who were appointed in 1941, or who were appointed to fill an unexpired term beginning in that year shall expire December 31, 1946, and the terms of office of those two who were appointed in 1943, or who were appointed to fill an unexpired term beginning in that year shall expire December 31, 1948. Upon said Commissioners qualifying as Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the Commission of Appeals shall terminate.

Article V. Sec. 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be coextensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law, the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a statute of the State is held void, and shall extend to such other questions as may be within the court's appellate jurisdiction under the Statutes of the State. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus as may be prescribed by law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said court and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall also have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of facts as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court.

The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter, be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide.

Sec. 2. Said proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified electors of this State at the next general election to be held throughout the State, at which election each voter opposing said proposed amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with a pen or pencil the following words printed on said ballot: "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for an elective Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court.", and each voter favoring said proposed amendment shall scratch off the ballot in the same manner the following words printed on said ballot: "Against the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published and said election held as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election.

(Mr. Chambers in the Chair.)

Question: Shall the amendment by Mr. Isaacks be adopted?

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House met at 2:30 o'clock p. m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

EXTENDING CONGRATULATIONS OF THE HOUSE TO MRS.
MALZENA GREGORY
ZUMWALT

Mr. McLellan offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 238, Extending Congratulations of the House to Mrs. Malzena Gregory Zumwalt.

Whereas, This the twenty-ninth day of April, 1941, celebrates the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Malzena Gregory Zumwalt; and

Whereas, Mrs. Zumwalt has spent ninety-six years in the constructive building and well being of Texas, attending the first college of Texas located at Rutersville, and served as postmistress of Petersburg in Lavaca County during the Civil War; and

Whereas, She is one of the few living persons who lived in the Republic of Texas before Texas was annexed to the United States; and one of the few living family friends of General Sam Houston, Gail Borden, and Judge Williamson, who was commonly called "Three Legged Willie," and who presided in the first court in Texas which was held under an oak tree in Columbus, Texas; now

Be it resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas. That we acknowledge the usefulness of this outstanding citizen and congratulate her upon being spared these one hundred years; and

Be it further resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be instructed by this House to send to Mrs. Malzena Gregory Zumwalt and her immediate family a copy of this resolution.

McLELLAN,
HOYO,
HOBBS, SPACEK.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO.
NO. 21 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT

The House resumed consideration of pending business, same being House Joint Resolution No. 21, Proposing an amendment to the Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, etc., on its passage to engrossment.

The resolution having heretofore been read second time, with amendment by Mr. Isaacks pending.

(Pending consideration of the amendment, Mr. McMurry occupied the Chair temporarily.)

(Mr. Favors in the Chair.)

Mr. Donald moved to table the amendment by Mr. Isaacks.

Mr. Simpson moved the previous question on the motion to table and the pending amendment by Mr. Isaacks, and the main question was ordered.

(Speaker in the Chair.)

Mr. McLellan offered the following committee amendments to the resolution:

Amend House Joint Resolution No. 7, Section 2, by adding a section to be known as Section 2a, which shall read as follows:

"Provided, however, that any textbooks furnished any child attending any parochial school or academy, or in any orphan asylum, shall be the same texts and by the same authors, as those books furnished children of the public schools."

Amend House Joint Resolution No. 27, Section 1 and 2, by omitting the word "private" wherever it appears.

The committee amendments were severally adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House the caption of the resolution was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the resolution.

H. J. R. No. 7 was passed to engrossment by the following vote:

Mr. Bell moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was engrossed and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3

On motion of Mr. Whitesides, House Joint Resolution No. 3 was laid on the table subject to call.

NOTICE GIVEN

Mr. Hughes gave notice that he would on the next legislative day move to take up for consideration at that time House Bill No. 627, which bill was heretofore laid on the table subject to call.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION NO. 236

Mr. Dove moved to reconsider the vote by which the House on this morning adopted House Simple Resolution No. 236, relative to making certain investigation in regard to the State Eleemosynary Institutions, and table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

EXPRESSING APPRECIATION OF THE HOUSE

Hon. Homer Leonard, Speaker, on behalf of the Members of the House, expressed appreciation to Mr. Finley Henderson and the Texas Legislative Service for their services in mimeographing copies of House Bill No. 8, as passed by the Senate and placing same on the desks of Members.

HOUSE BILL NO. 8 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS

Mr. Morris called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 8, A bill to be entitled "An Act levying various taxes and providing certain revenue for the payment of Old Age Assistance, aid to Destitute Children, aid to Needy Blind, and the obligations of the State under the Teachers Retirement Act; amending Section 2 of Chapter 241, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature, and levying certain taxes on persons making the first sale in this State of cigarettes and providing for the collection and administration thereof; amending Section 2 of Article 7057a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, same being Section 2, Chapter 162, Acts of the Forty-third Legislature, Regular Session, 1933, as amended by Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, 1933, Chapter 12, Section 1, as amended by Acts of the Third Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature, 1936, Chapter 495, Article 4, Section 4, levying certain occupation taxes on oil produced within this State, defining certain terms in connection therewith, establishing the liability thereof, and providing for the computation, collection, and administration thereof; etc.; and declaring an emergency."

Mr. Morris moved that the House concur in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 8.

Mr. Klingeman moved a call of the House for the purpose of maintaining a quorum until House Bill No. 8 is disposed of and the call was not seconded.

Mr. Clark submitted the following substitute motion:

"Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do not concur in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 8, and appoint a Conference Committee and intrust this Conference Committee to remove from the provisions of House Bill No. 8 all oil well acidizing companies."

Mr. Morris moved to table the substitute motion by Mr. Clark.

Question recurring on the motion to table, yeas and nays were demanded.

Mr. Bell moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed, and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 875 ON SECOND READING

(By unanimous consent)

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 875, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 5221-b, Vernon's Annotated Statutes of Texas, as amended, by adding a new section to be known as Section 8-A; defining certain additional terms; making provisions with reference to the authority of the Unemployment Compensation Commission to make reasonable rules and regulations regarding seasonal workers; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. McAlister offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 875 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Section 8-A, Senate Bill No. 21, being Chapter 2 of the General Laws of the 46th Legislature, Regular Session, 1939, which said Senate Bill No. 21 amended Chapter 482, General and Special Laws, 44th Legislature, Third Called Session, be and the same is hereby amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Sec. 8-A. That a new section, to be known as Section 8-A, be added to read as follows:

"Sec. 8-A (1) As used in this Section, the term 'seasonal employer' means an employer who customarily lays off or discharges for a period of at least eight (8) consecutive weeks, which period regularly recurs at some time during each calendar year, forty (40%) per cent or more of the individuals in his employment. The Commission shall place seasonal employers in categories of seasonal industries, after a determination in a like manner to that provided in subsection (2) below for the Commission's determination with respect to 'seasonal industry.'

"(2) The term 'seasonal industry' means an industry in which, because of the seasonal nature thereof, it is customary for seasonal employers to lay off or discharge for a period of at least eight (8) consecutive weeks, which period regularly recurs at some time during each calendar year, forty (40%) per cent or more of the individuals in their employment. The Commission shall, after a study of previous employment records during a reasonable prior period, as determined by the Commission, and after investigation and hearing determine, and may thereafter from time to time redetermine the normal seasonal period or periods during which the workers, employees or individuals in employment are ordinarily employed for the purpose of carrying on the seasonal operations in each seasonal industry. Until such determination by the Commission, no industry shall be deemed to be seasonal.

"(3) A 'seasonal employee' or 'seasonal worker' or 'individual in seasonal employment' means a worker, employee, or individual who belongs to that class of individuals ordinarily laid off or discharged by a seasonal employer in a seasonal industry for a period of not less than eight (8) consecutive weeks, which period regularly recurs at some time during each calendar year, except that the term shall not include workers or employees or individuals in employment in occupations which, after the Commission has studied the nature thereof and employment records of workers engaged therein in the manner provided for determinations with respect to seasonal industry, are found to be occupations in which employment regularly continues throughout substantially all of the calendar year.

"(4) Wages payable to seasonal workers by seasonal employers in seasonal industries shall be used as wage credits only to the extent of that percentage arrived at by dividing the total number of weeks in the calendar year during which such particular seasonal industry regularly operates by the total number of weeks in the calendar year.

"(5) Under this Section, the Commission is authorized and empowered to classify employers as being in seasonal industries, after first determining that such employer is a seasonal employer, and to determine the average seasonal period of operation of each individual seasonal employer, and to determine who are seasonal workers or seasonal employees or individuals in seasonal employment, and to determine the amount of wages for seasonal employment which are available as a basis for the payment of benefits to seasonal workers.

"(6) The Commission shall have the power to prescribe, and shall prescribe, fair and reasonable regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this Section, and shall prescribe regulations applicable to seasonal workers or employees for determining the amounts of and the periods during which benefits shall be payable to them. The Commission may prescribe such other fair and reasonable regulations with respect to such other matters relating to benefits for seasonal workers or employees as the Commission finds necessary and consistent with the policy and purposes of this Act. Regulations prescribed pursuant to this Section shall supersede any inconsistent provisions of this Act or of the Commission's Regulations, but shall, so far as practicable, secure results reasonably similar to those provided in analagous provisions of this Act."

Sec. 3. This Act shall be effective on the first day of July, 1941.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall repeal all parts of Chapter 482, General and Special Laws, 44th Legislature, Third Called Session, as amended, in conflict herewith, and all other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Sec. 5. The fact that there is no effective provision of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act which accomplishes equitable taxation of employers engaged in seasonal industries creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three separate days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Mr. Lowry offered the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend amendment to House Bill No. 875 of the printed bill, page 1, line 21, and line 31, by substituting in the proper place sixty (60%) per cent.

On motion of Mr. Stanford the amendment by Mr. Lowry was tabled.

Question recurring on the committee amendment, it was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the bill.

House Bill No. 875 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 875 ON THIRD READING

Mr. Stanford moved that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that House Bill No. 875 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

Mr. Bell moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

MOTION TO PLACE HOUSE BILL NO. 361 ON THIRD READING

Mr. Hobbs moved that the necessary Rules be suspended for the purpose of taking up and considering, at this time,

H. B. No. 361, A bill to be entitled "An Act declaring the floods of Lavaca County, Texas, to be a public calamity; authorizing a donation and grant to Lavaca County Flood Control District of one-half of the State ad valorem taxes collected in Lavaca County for flood control improvement and maintenance purposes, specifying the reports thereon to be made by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes; authorizing the issuance of bonds secured by a pledge of the funds donated and granted by the State and prescribing the manner of issuance thereof; providing the procedure hereunder for all matters relating to said donation; providing that if any provision of this Act shall be held invalid, the other provisions shall not be affected; and declaring an emergency."

The motion was lost by the following vote (not receiving the necessary two-thirds vote):

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Speaker laid before the House and had read the following message from the Governor:

April 29th, 1941.

To the House of Representatives of the Forty-seventh Legislature:

At the request of the author, Representative L. L. Bruhl, I am returning herewith House Bill No. 755 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
W. LEE O'DANIEL,
Governor of Texas.

RECESS

On motion of Mr. Manning, the House, at 5:15 o'clock p. m., took recess until 7:30 o'clock p. m. today.

NIGHT SESSION

The House met at 7:30 o'clock p. m. and was called to order by the Speaker.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE GRANTED

The following Members were granted leaves of absence for this evening on account of important business:

Mr. Gilmer on motion of Mr. Stinson.

Mr. Bray on motion of Mr. McMurry.

Mr. Hughes on motion of Mr. Little.

REMARKS OF HONORABLE
ERNEST COKER

In accordance with the motion by Mr. Cato the following remarks of Honorable Ernest Coker were ordered printed in the Journal:

Mr. Speaker, Members of the State Senate, and Members of the House of Representatives of Texas:

I want, at this time, to express as a new Member, one of the ninety-three new Members of this House for our first term, my sincere appreciation for those Members who have labored very hard and untiringly to bring to the floor of the House of Representatives the Tax Bill we have just passed. This, in my opinion, will take care of our Social Security problems of Texas. Especially do I want to pay honor and tribute to G. C. Morris. When I arrived in Austin to start my labor in the Forty-seventh Session, I heard that G. C. Morris was an obstructionist. I heard him called the "Key" man; that he was against Social Security. These statements were unwarranted and inexcusable. The principles he has worked for were sound policies of government and as long as the people of Texas send to the Legislature men with the intestinal fortitude and sincerity as characteristic of G. C. Morris, the people of the Lone Star State will never have any fear in the preservation of the Democracy of our State. He has worked consistently and courageously for the old people and other Social Security problems of Texas, and when the silver-haired people, underprivileged children and needy blind enjoy the fruits of this bill, they should think kindly of the courage of G. C. Morris of Greenville, who has never dealt in human emotions, but has worked untiringly with courage and integrity in behalf of these people. I pay tribute to you, G. C. Morris.

COKER.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE
BILL NO. 933

Mr. Humphrey was granted unanimous consent of the House to withdraw his name from House Bill No. 933.

Mr. Fitzgerald was granted unanimous consent of the House to sign House Bill No. 933.

BILLS ORDERED NOT PRINTED

On motion of Mr. Brawner, House Bill No. 974 was ordered not printed.

On motion of Mr. Blankenship, House Bill No. 976 was ordered not printed.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE
BILL NO. 357

On motion of Mr. Coker, House Bill No. 357 was laid on the table.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE
BILL NO. 851

On motion of Mr. Allison, House Bill No. 851 was laid on the table.

HOUSE BILL NO. 773 ON
FINAL PASSAGE

The Speaker laid before the House, as postponed business, on its final passage,

H. B. No. 773, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the Board of Directors of Texas Technological College to purchase insurance on the contents of the book store located on the campus of the college, and on the building and contents of the R. O. T. C. Building located on the campus of the college, and on the building and contents of the N. Y. A. Cooperative Dormitory Building located on the campus of the college; authorizing the payment of the necessary insurance premiums out of the local funds of the college and appropriating sufficient funds of money therefrom to pay same; and declaring an emergency."

The bill having heretofore been read third time.

Mr. Halsey moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was heretofore adopted to House Bill No. 773.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

Question: Shall the amendment be adopted?

The amendment was withdrawn.

H. B. No. 773 was then passed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 889 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 889, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the Commissioners Court in any county having a population of not less than Twenty Thousand, Five Hundred and Fifty-six (20,556) and not more than Twenty Thousand, Five Hundred and Fifty-eight (20,558), according to the last preceding Federal Census, to allow each County Commissioner certain expenses for traveling in connection with the use of his automobile on official business; requiring each such Commissioner to pay the expense of operation and repair of such automobile so used by him without further expense to the County; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Chambers offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 889 by adding at the end of Section 1 a new Section to be known as Section 1a, to read as follows:

Section 1a. In all counties in this State having a population of not less than Eleven Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty (11,950) and not more than Twelve Thousand (12,000), according to the last available Federal Census as same now exists or may hereinafter exist, and in all counties having a population of not less than Twenty-one Thousand Seven Hundred (21,700) and not more than Twenty-two Thousand Four Hundred (22,400), according to the last available Federal Census as same now exists or may hereafter exist, the Commissioners' Court of each County is hereby authorized to allow each Commissioner the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month for traveling expenses while on official business.

The amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 889 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 889 ON

HOUSE BILL NO. 931 ON SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 931, A bill to be entitled "An Act declaring it unlawful for any person to kill, take, or have in his possession for purpose of sale in Angelina and Taylor Counties any wild fox or the pelts thereof, providing that this law shall be enforced for a period of two (2) years; providing various exemptions and exceptions; prescribing a penalty for the violation of this Act; repealing all laws in conflict; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Burnaman offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 931 by striking out the words "Angelina and Tyler Counties" in Section 1, and inserting the following: "Angelina, Tyler, Newton, Jasper, Sabine, and San Augustine Counties."

BURNAMAN,
HARGIS.

Amend House Bill No. 931 by adding a new section at the end of the bill as follows:

"Sec. 5. . The fact that the existing laws in regard to wild fox in Angelina, Tyler, Newton, Jasper, Sabine, and San Augustine Counties are insufficient to accomplish the purpose creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring that the Constitutional Rule providing that the bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

LOCK, BURNAMAN,
HARGIS.

The amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 931 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 931 ON THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 312 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 312, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating the office of Criminal District Attorney in certain counties; etc.; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Celaya offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 312 (and the caption of said bill to conform therewith) so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. In each county in this State in which there are two or more Judicial Districts, and in which the County Attorney performs the duties of County Attorney and District Attorney, and in which there is not now a District Attorney, the office of Criminal District Attorney is hereby created, provided the Commissioners' Court of such county shall first approve the creation of said office of Criminal District Attorney. Said office of Criminal District Attorney shall exist from and after such approval by such Commissioners' Court. Such officer shall be known as Criminal District Attorney of such county. He shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws of this State for other District Attorneys. And it is further provided and directed that the person who is the present County Attorney of such county shall continue in office and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws of this State for other District Attorneys, and assume the duties and be known as the Criminal District Attorney of the county, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney of such county, and appoint assistants as provided in this Act. Provided further, that the present County Attorney in such county shall continue to hold the office created by this Act, for a period in no event less than the time such officer would have held his office as County Attorney had this Act not been passed. A Criminal District Attorney shall be elected in such county at the general election of the year immediately preceding the termination of the term of the Criminal District Attorney provided for such counties in this Act. Thereafter, a Criminal District Attorney in each such counties shall be regularly elected as provided by law."

The amendment was adopted.

Senate Bill No. 312 was then passed to third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 914 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 914, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend an Act of the Forty-fourth Legislature, creating a Special Road Law for Childress County, Texas, being Chapter 435 of the General and Special Laws passed by the Forty-fourth Legislature at its Second Called Session in 1935, by adding thereto four new sections, authorizing Childress County to fund or refund the warrant indebtedness outstanding against its Road and Bridge Fund as of April 10, 1941, by the issuance of refunding bonds, and setting forth the method of operation; validating all acts of the Commissioners Court and of the county officials in authorizing, executing, and delivering said warrants; providing that this law shall be cumulative of General Laws on the subject of roads and bridges and General Laws on funding or refunding bonds not in conflict herewith; enacting provisions incident and relating to the subject and purpose of this Act; repealing all laws in conflict herewith; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Eubank offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 914 by striking out all above and below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

A BILLTo Be Entitled

An Act to amend an Act of the Forty-fourth Legislature, creating a Special Road Law for Childress County, Texas, being Chapter 435 of the General and Special Laws passed by the Forty-fourth Legislature at its Second Called Session in 1935, by adding thereto four new sections authorizing Childress County to fund or refund indebtedness outstanding against its Road and Bridge Fund as of April 10, 1941, including bonds, interest bearing time warrants and scrip warrants, by the issuance of funding or refunding bonds, either or both; setting forth the method of operation; validating acts of the Commissioners' Court and of the County Officials in authorizing, executing and delivering said outstanding bonds and warrants; providing that this law shall be cumulative of General Laws on the subject of roads and bridges and General Laws on funding or refunding bonds not in conflict herewith; providing that in event any provision of this Act shall conflict with any other law of this State, either General or Special, the provisions of this Act shall prevail in so far as applicable to said County; enacting provisions incident to and relating to the subject and purpose of this Act; repealing all laws in conflict herewith; and declaring an emergency.

Section 1. That the Act of the Forty-fourth Legislature, creating a Special Road Law for Childress County, Texas, being Chapter 435 of the General and Special Laws passed by the Forty-fourth Legislature at its Second Called Session in 1935, is hereby amended by adding thereto four new sections, and which shall read and provide, respectively, as follows:

"Sec. 4-a. The Commissioners' Court of Childress County, Texas, is authorized and empowered to fund or refund any and all indebtedness lawfully incurred, and outstanding against its Road and Bridge Fund as of April 10, 1941, including bonds, interest bearing time warrants and scrip warrants. In lieu of such bonds and warrants the Commissioners' Court of said County may issue funding or refunding bonds, using its own discretion as to whether bonds or refunding bonds, or both, are to be issued, and may issue same on its own motion and without the necessity of giving notice of intention to issue same. Such funding or refunding bonds, either or both, may be issued by the Court payable serially or otherwise within a period of time not exceeding forty (40) years as the Court may direct and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five (5) per cent per annum, provided that no bond or time warrant shall be funded or refunded to bear a higher rate than it bears at the time of funding or refunding, interest payable annually or semi-annually as may be determined by the Court, in such denomination as may be prescribed by the Court. At such time as said bonds or refunding bonds shall be issued, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners' Court to levy an annual ad valorem tax on all taxable property within the county sufficient to provide for the payment of principal and interest of said bonds, which tax shall be chargeable against the Road and Bridge Fund of the County authorized in the Constitution, provided that the aggregate amount of said bonds herein authorized shall not exceed the limitations provided by the Constitution and in no event shall exceed the amount of indebtedness outstanding against said fund on the date hereinabove specified.

"Sec. 4-b. All acts of the Commissioners' Court in passing orders authorizing the issuance of said warrants outstanding as of the said 10th day of April, 1941, and all acts of the officials of said County in lawfully executing and delivering said warrants, and all of said warrants are hereby authorized, confirmed, ratified, approved, and validated.

"Sec. 4-c. The General Laws of the State of Texas pertaining to roads and bridges shall be applicable to Childress County, Texas, wherein not in conflict with the provisions hereof; but in case of conflict the provisions of this Act shall be effective.

"Sec. 4-d. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all General Laws on the subject of funding or refunding bonds, not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein, such General Laws shall apply; but in case of conflict, the provisions of this Act shall control and be effective."

Sec. 2. The fact that Childress County, Texas, does not have an adequate Special Road Law to effect the purposes of this Act creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity, to the end that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be and the same is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 914 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 914 ON THIRD READING

Mr. Eubank moved that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that House Bill No. 914 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 933 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 933, A bill to be entitled "An Act to prohibit the use in Fort Phantom Hill Lake of Jones and Taylor Counties of certain devices for catching fish; to limit the size and number of fish to be caught; to prohibit the taking of any fresh water fish during the months of February, March or April; to prohibit the taking of any catfish during the months of March, April, May and June; to regulate the taking of minnnows; providing a penalty; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Humphrey offered the following committee amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 933 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to the Fort Phantom Hill Lake of Jones and Taylor County, State of Texas.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful in Fort Phantom Hill Lake in the County of Jones and/or Taylor to catch, take, or attempt to catch or take any fish by any method, means, or device, except by ordinary pole and line, rod and reel, fly rod, or throw line equipped with not more than two hooks. Artificial lures may be used. No person shall place in the waters of Fort Phantom Hill Lake in the County of Jones and/or Taylor any seine, net or other device or trap for taking or catching fish. This shall not prohibit the use of minnow seine of not more than twenty (20) feet in length for the purpose of taking minnows for bait.

Sec. 3. Providing, however, that no person shall use more than two (2) ordinary poles and lines, or rods and reels, or fly rods, or two (2) throw lines, each equipped with not more than two (2) hooks for the purpose of taking or attempting to take any fish in the above-named lake.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person in the above-named lake to take or have in his or her possession any channel cat fish, blue cat fish, or yellow cat fish less than twelve (12) inches in length or any bass less than twelve (12) inches in length or any crappie or white perch less than nine (9) inches in length or any bream less than five (5) inches in length, or any perch less than five (5) inches in length.

Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person in the above-named lake, County of Jones and/or Taylor to take in any one day or to have in possession at any one time more than five (5) bass or more than five (5) of the above named cat fish or more than ten (10) crappie or white perch or more than ten (10) perch or more than ten (10) bream, or an aggregate of more than fifteen (15) of all such fish. The taking of or possession of each fish in excess of the number herein allowed shall be a separate offense.

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful during the months of February, March or April, of any year to take or attempt to take any fresh water fish in the lake above named.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to take from the waters of Fort Phantom Hill Lake in the Counties of Jones and/or Taylor, minnows of any and all species commonly used for fish bait, when such minnows are to be used for the purpose of barter or sale.

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person at any one time to have in his or her possession more than one hundred (100) minnows taken from the waters of Fort Phantom Hill Lake in the Counties of Jones and/or Taylor.

Sec. 9. Any person violating any provisions of Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten ($10.00) dollars or more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

Sec. 10. The fact that Fort Phantom Hill Lake has recently been built and stocked with fish which may be destroyed creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Amend House Bill No. 933 by striking out all above the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

A BILL
To Be Entitled

An Act to prohibit the use in Fort Phantom Hill Lake of Jones and Taylor Counties of certain devices for catching fish; to limit the size and number of fish to be caught; to prohibit the taking of any fresh water fish during the months of February, March or April to regulate the taking of minnows; providing a penalty; and declaring an emergency.

The Committee Amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 933 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 933 ON
THIRD READING

Mr. Humphrey moved that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that House Bill No. 933 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

HOUSE BILL NO. 863 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 863, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing for the location of grave yards or cemeteries, providing for the removal of bodies, and providing for the abatement of nuisances in all counties in this State with a population of 525,000 or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Montgomery offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 863 by striking out all below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. In all counties in this State with a population of 525,000 or more, the maintenance or location of feed pens for hogs, cattle and horses, or slaughter pens, or of slaughter houses within 500 feet of any established cemetery is declared to be a nuisance, and the owner of said cemetery, or any of the lot owners therein, may maintain an action in the courts to abate such nuisance and to enjoin its continuance, and if it appears that such nuisance exists or is threatened in violation of this Act, a perpetual injunction shall be granted against the parties guilty of such nuisance.

Sec. 2. In all counties in this State with a population of 525,000 or more, when an old, abandoned and neglected cemetery for which no perpetual care and endowment fund has been regularly and legally established, is abated as a nuisance, either the court abating same and enjoining its continuance or the city council of the city in which said cemetery is located, may authorize the removal of all bodies, monuments, tombs, etc. therein to a perpetually endowed cemetery as defined under the laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that if there exists within said county no perpetual care cemetery which under its rules and regulations will permit the interment of the bodies of the persons which are to be removed, the said bodies, monuments, tombs, etc., may be removed to a non-perpetual care cemetery which has provided for assessments for the future care of said cemetery.

Sec. 3. The fact that there is no adequate law to protect the public from the nuisance created by the maintenance of feed pens for stock and slaughter pens and slaughter houses near cemeteries, and the further fact that many perpetual care cemeteries enforce rules and regulations which would prevent the interment in said perpetual care cemeteries of the remains of certain deceased persons which must be removed from abandoned cemeteries, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and it is hereby suspended, and this bill shall be enforced in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 863 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 115 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 115, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Title 15, Chapter 14 of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, relating to the offense of negligent homicide, by inserting in the Penal Code a new article defining the offense of negligent homicide by motor vehicle or motorcycle, and fixing the punishment therefor, and providing that it shall not be necessary in any indictment, information, or complaint hereunder to set out and enumerate any specific acts of negligence, and repealing Articles 1230, 1231, 1235, 1237, 1238, 1239, 1240, 1242, and 1243 of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, in so far as the same may be in conflict herewith, but not otherwise; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Heflin offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 115 by striking out the words "it shall not be necessary in any indictment, information, or complaint, under this Article, to set out or enumerate any specific acts of negligence," wherever they appear.

HEFLIN,
BOONE,
FAVORS.

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the bill.

House Bill No. 115 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 543 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 543, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the State Forester to designate certain of his employees as peace officers and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Burnaman offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 543 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting the following:

Section 1. That Article 2613 be amended by adding the following paragraph, to be known as Section 10a:

"10a. The State Forester may, when the enforcement of the provisions of this Act requires, name the following of his employees: two District Foresters, four Division Patrolmen, and four Patrolmen as Peace Officers, whose duties and powers shall not exceed the duties of the State Forester as set out in the above Section 10 hereof. The necessity of such appointments shall be certified to and approved by the board of directors."

Sec. 2. The fact that the Texas Forest Service has only one man empowered as a law enforcement officer and the large number of forest fires so prevalent in certain seasons make it impossible for the proper exercise of the enforcement of the Forest Laws of Texas creates an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three separate days in each House, be suspended and said Rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Amend House Bill No. 543 by striking out all above the enacting clause and inserting the following:

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act amending Article 2613, R. S. 1925, authorizing the State Forester to designate certain of his employees as peace officers and declaring an emergency.

The amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 543 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 543 ON THIRD READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 821 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 821, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Rules 36a and 37a of Article 4477 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, relative to the registration of births and deaths; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Roark offered the following committee amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 821 by striking out all below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. Amend Rule 36a of Article 4477 of the Revised Statutes of Texas so as to hereafter read as follows:

Rule 36a. Each county in this State shall constitute a primary registration district and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the County Clerk of each county to secure a complete record of each birth and death that occurs within their respective counties and it is required by this Act.

Sec. 2. The crowded condition of the Calendar, the near approach of the end of the Session, and the fact that the law relative to births and deaths is inadequate to meet the present demands, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read in each House on three several days be suspended and the same is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Amend House Bill No. 821 by striking out all above the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act to amend Rule 36a of Article 4477 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas relative to the registration of births and deaths, and declaring an emergency.

The amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 821 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 821 ON THIRD READING

Mr. Roark moved that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that House Bill No. 821 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 862, A bill to be entitled "An Act to validate all ad valorem tax levies heretofore made by incorporated cities and towns in the State of Texas for current expenses, for support of public free schools and for interest and sinking funds to pay bonded obligations heretofore authorized by the electorate, which levies are void and unenforceable because the governing bodies of such cities and towns failed to make such levies by formal ordinance or made the levies prior to final approval of the annual budget, or because the levies were made and adopted without the tax rolls being actually before such governing bodies, and making all such levies enforceable under this Act as though adopted originally by ordinance in strict compliance with all requirements of law; provided this Act shall not apply to levies the validity of which has been attacked by litigation pending in court on effective date of this Act; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time and was passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 939 ON
SECOND READING

The Chair laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 939, A bill to be entitled "An Act validating and approving all acts of the governing bodies of cities and towns of the State of Texas operating under the provisions of the General Laws of Texas and having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) in the issuance and sale of bonds, to aid in financing certain public improvements for which a loan or grant has been made by any agent or agency of the United States Government, including election orders, notices of elections, returns of elections, and orders canvassing election returns, including among others, instances wherein there have been irregularities in the giving of notice of elections, notwithstanding the fact that the notice of election was not published on the same day in each of two successive weeks; validating such bonds and the tax levies made for the payment of such bonds; providing the provisions hereof shall not apply to any such proceedings or obligations the validity of which has been contested in any pending suit or litigation; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time and was passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 718 ON
SECOND READING

The Chair laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 718, A bill to be entitled "An Act to be known as Article 7930-3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and being an amendment to Chapter 4, Title 128, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and to provide for elections upon the question of exclusion of lands from water districts created under Chapter 4, Title 128, where the lands to be excluded have theretofore been annexed to a city or town, providing as one of its functions the same services authorized by law to be provided by such water district, but such election and such exclusion not to affect the liability of such excluded property for its just portion of any indebtedness theretofore assumed and fixed by such water district, providing for an equitable apportionment of indebtedness; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Hanna offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 718 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Chapter 4, Title 128 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, be, and the same is hereby amended by inserting therein and adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article 7930-3, and which shall read as follows:

Sec. 2. The Board of Supervisors of any Fresh Water Supply District situated entirely in any one county of this State and which Fresh Water Supply District, when created did not include within its boundaries any land which was within the corporate limits of any city or town, and which district has within its boundaries lands, which since the creation of such Fresh Water Supply District have been annexed to and become a part of a city or town rendering to such lands and the residents thereof the services the said district is authorized by law to render, and the population of such city or town exceeds 4,000 according to the Federal Census last preceding such exclusion and such city or town has not adopted a home rule charter under the provisions of Chapter Thirteen, Title 20, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, are authorized to exclude such lands or parts thereof from the boundaries of any such districts in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the method herein and hereby prescribed; provided, however, that such area as may be excluded shall have a part of its boundary or boundaries identical with a part of the boundary or boundaries of the district as constituted at the time of the exclusion; and provided, further, that the total area of such lands which may be excluded, whether by a single or by different acts of exclusion, shall not in the aggregate exceed in area one-tenth of the total area of such district as originally constituted in the order creating the District.

Sec. 3. The Board of Supervisors of such district may by three-fourths vote, and shall upon petition of five per cent of the qualified tax paying voters of such district, as shown by the rolls of the tax collector and assessor of such district, call a meeting of said Board for the purpose of determining whether any of such lands included within the boundaries of such district shall be excluded therefrom, and such petition and the notice of such meeting shall describe by metes and bounds, or by survey numbers, or by other reasonable identification, the proposed new boundaries of the district, and shall state that it is proposed that all of the land within the boundaries of the district not included within the proposed new boundaries as set forth shall be excluded from such district.

The notice of meeting shall also state the time and place thereof and that any land owner within the district within or without the proposed new boundaries, may appear at such meeting and be heard in support of or in opposition to the establishment of such new boundaries and the exclusion of the land proposed to be excluded, and such notice shall be addressed or directed to:

"All Land Owners and Tax Payers of _____ County, Fresh Water Supply District No.— (inserting the name and number of the district) and All other Persons Concerned."

A certified copy of such notice shall be posted in three public places within the district, and one copy shall be published once not less than ten days prior to the date of the meeting in a newspaper having a general circulation in the district, or if there is no newspaper having general circulation in the district, then in a newspaper having general circulation in the county wherein the district is situated.

Such meeting may be adjourned from day to day or from time to time as the Board of Supervisors may deem necessary or advisable.

Sec. 4. If by the time set for such meeting no written protest of the exclusion of lands from such district shall have been filed with the Board of Supervisors by the owner or owners of any land or lands within the District, and if no protest or protests are made at such meeting by the owner or owners of any land or lands in the district, or if such protest or protests represents less than three per cent of the total superficial area of the district, the Board of Supervisors shall thereupon at their discretion either call an election as hereinafter provided upon the proposition whether the boundaries of such District shall be so altered as to exclude such land or lands or by resolution duly adopted and entered upon the Minutes of their proceedings, declare such land or lands so proposed to be excluded from the boundaries of the district no longer a part of the district, and shall set forth the boundaries of the district as so altered and fixed, and a copy of such resolution signed by a majority of the Board of Supervisors, duly attested by the secretary, shall be filed in the office of the County

Clerk and recorded in the Deed Records of the County in which such district is situated, and the land or lands thus excluded shall be no longer a part of such district from and after the recording of such resolution as aforesaid; provided, however, that the withdrawn or excluded land or lands shall not be released from the payment of its/their pro rata part or share of any indebtedness existing at the date of such withdrawal, which pro rata part or share shall be as herein provided; nor shall such land or lands be released from the payment of taxes which may be delinquent at the time of such exclusion or which may thereafter become delinquent; and it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to continue to levy a tax each year on such excluded land or lands as herein provided for the purpose of paying the then existing indebtedness until the taxes collected from such excluded land shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness at the time of withdrawal.

Sec. 5. In the event written protest or protests are filed with the Board of Supervisors prior to the meeting provided for under Section 3 hereof, or in the event any protest or protests are made at such meeting by the owner or owners of any land or lands within the district; it shall thereupon be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to pass upon such protest or protests and to hear the evidence thereon, and if the owner or owners of as much as three per centum of the land within the boundaries of the district shall protest against such exclusion, the Board of Supervisors shall thereupon call an election to pass upon the proposition whether the boundaries of such district shall be so altered as to exclude such land or lands, and such election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as provided by Articles 7888 to 7894, inclusive, so far as same are applicable, except where otherwise provided herein, except that the Board of Supervisors shall perform all the functions imposed on the Commissioners Court by said articles.

Sec. 6. Notice of such election, stating the time and place for holding same, the proposed new boundaries of the district as set out in Section 3 hereof, the proposition to be voted upon and the names of the presiding officers appointed for holding the election, shall be given by the Board by posting a copy thereof in four public places in the district, and one at the courthouse door for twenty days prior to the date of election.

Sec. 7. The Board of Supervisors shall provide the necessary ballot for such election, which shall have printed thereon:

"For the establishment of the new boundaries of the ——— Fresh Water Supply District No. —." (inserting the name of the District) and

"Against the establishment of the new boundaries of the ——— Fresh Water Supply District No. —." (inserting the name of the District).

Sec. 8. Every person who offers to vote at any election held under the provisions of this Act shall take the following oath before the presiding judge at the voting place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer the same:

"I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of ——— County, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of ——— County, Fresh Water Supply District No. — (inserting the number and name of the district) and have not voted before in this election."

Sec. 9. If at such election a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of the establishment of such new boundaries, the Board of Supervisors shall thereupon enter an order declaring such election to be in favor of the establishment of such new boundaries, and such order shall be entered in the minutes of the proceedings of such Board, declaring such land or lands so excluded to be no longer a part of such district and declaring and describing the new boundaries by metes and bounds, or by survey numbers, or by other reasonable identification, and a copy of such order signed by a majority of the members of the Board of Supervisors and duly attested by the secretary shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk and recorded in the Deed Records of the county in which such district is situated, and such land or lands shall no longer be a part of the district from and after the recording of such order; provided, however, that such excluded land or lands shall not be released from the payment of its/their pro rata part or share of any indebtedness existing at the date of such withdrawal, such pro rata part or share of such indebtedness to be determined as herein provided; nor shall such land or lands be released from the payment of taxes which may be delinquent at the time of such exclusion of which may thereafter become delinquent; and it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to continue to levy a tax each year upon such excluded land or lands as herein provided until the taxes collected from such excluded land shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness at the time of withdrawal.

Sec. 10. If the proposition to exclude such territory be defeated by a majority of the votes cast at any such election, no petition for the exclusion of all or any part of such territory shall be filed with or acted upon by the Board of Supervisors of such district within one year of such election and the Board of Supervisors of such district shall not be required to exclude any part of such territory or call another election to pass upon a proposition to so alter the boundaries of such district as to exclude any part of the territory within the area sought to be excluded at the last election at which such proposition was defeated until after the expiration of one year from the date of such election.

Sec. 11. The rights of the holders of any outstanding and unpaid bonds, warrants or other certificates of indebtedness of such Fresh Water Supply District shall be in nowise or manner diminished or impaired by any proceeding hereunder; but, as between the owners of the property within the territory excluded, as herein provided, and the owners of the property remaining within such Fresh Water Supply District, the pro rata part or share of any indebtedness existing at the date of such exclusion shall be ascertained and payment thereof made as follows:

(a) The property within the excluded area shall be charged with, and the owners of such property shall pay as their pro rata part of the indebtedness of the district, that percentage of a sum of money to be determined by deducting from whichever is greater of either the face value (par plus accrued interest) or market value of the then outstanding indebtedness of each series of such bonds or warrants the sinking funds, reserves and deposits then held for the payment thereof which the total assessed value of all the property assessed within the excluded area bore to the total assessed value before such exclusion of all the assessed property of the entire district from which said territory is taken for the tax year within which the respective series of such indebtedness were issued and sold, the values as shown by the tax roll of the district to be used as the basis of the computation. At the time of the adoption of the resolution of exclusion as provided either in Section 4 or Section 9 hereof, the Board of Supervisors shall ascertain such pro rata share of indebtedness of the district chargeable to the excluded area as provided in this section and shall duly adopt in its records a resolution establishing and fixing such pro rata share, and when thus ascertained, fixed and established such amount shall be binding upon all persons and property in both the excluded and the remaining areas of such district.

(b) The property remaining within the new boundaries of such Fresh Water Supply District, as such boundaries are redefined after the exclusion of territory as herein provided, shall be charged with, and the owners thereof shall pay in due course by annual taxes, the remainder of all the indebtedness of such Fresh Water Supply District.

(c) The taxes levied against all of the property within the excluded territory for the current taxable year in which the exclusion is made as herein provided shall be paid and remain, until paid, as a lien against such property excluded from such Fresh Water Supply District as though no territory had been excluded, but the amount thereof collected shall be credited against and deducted from the total sum for which the property within the excluded area and the owners thereof are liable under the above Section 11-(a), and no additional taxes or other charges shall be levied, assessed or charged against such land for the current year in which such exclusion is made.

(d) All taxes against any land or lands within the excluded area which may be delinquent at the time of the exclusion and all taxes against any of such land or lands which may thereafter become delinquent shall have the same status as they would have had if such land or lands had not been excluded, and such Fresh Water Supply District shall continue to have, exercise, and enjoy all of the liens, right and remedies it would have had against the persons and property against whom and which such taxes were assessed if the territory had not been excluded.

The principal of all taxes assessed against the excluded territory after such exclusion and collected after becoming delinquent, but before the final payment of all sums chargeable against the property so excluded, shall be credited against the amount so chargeable, as though such taxes had been collected when due. All taxes remaining delinquent after the collection of all charges herein provided for shall remain the property of such Fresh Water Supply District and be enforceable against the property on which it was assessed and the owner thereof.

(e) Any municipality authorized to do so and any person, firm or corporation desiring to do so may pay any sum of money it desires to pay at any time toward the payment and discharge of the sum chargeable against the property within the excluded area and the owners thereof, and all such voluntary payments shall be received and receipted for by such Fresh Water Supply District as a credit on and reduction of the amount herein apportioned and charged against the excluded area.

(f) After the current year in which the exclusion is made as herein provided, the remainder of the sum chargeable against the excluded area shall be paid by the owners of the property so excluded and be collected as taxes assessed and levied annually against the property within the excluded area and the owners thereof, just as though the exclusion had not been made, on the same basis as taxes are assessed annually against the property remaining within such district, until the amount so collected from the excluded territory and the owners of property therein equals the total net sum chargeable against and recoverable of and from such excluded area as herein provided, except that the taxes and charges assessed against the property within the excluded area for the last year during which such levies and assessments are made may be lower than the rate applicable to the area not excluded in order to produce a sum of money required to discharge the balance of the sum chargeable against the excluded area, provided, however, that in any event the district shall continue to levy taxes against the lands within such excluded area each year until the pro rata share of the indebtedness chargeable to such excluded area shall have been collected by the district.

All taxes and charges of every kind herein provided for shall be subject to the same penalties and interest as other taxes levied by such Fresh Water Supply District, and such district shall have all the rights and remedies with reference thereto which it has with reference to other taxes.

Sec. 12. Upon the payment of all of the sums herein provided for and chargeable against the property within the territory so excluded, save and except such taxes and charges as are levied but delinquent against specific pieces of property within the excluded territory, all of the property within the excluded territory, save and except that against which such delinquent taxes and charges remain unpaid, and the owners thereof, shall be fully discharged and released of each and every obligation and duty it and they have to such Fresh Water Supply District, and the Board of Supervisors of such Fresh Water Supply District shall thereupon adopt and cause to be recorded in the minutes of such district and in the deed records of the county in which such Fresh Water Supply District is situated a resolution setting out the fact that the property within the excluded area and the owners thereof, save and except the property against which taxes are then delinquent and the owners thereof, have fully discharged every obligation imposed by this Act and are fully released of all obligations to such Fresh Water Supply District, and such resolution shall contain a list of the property against which taxes are then unpaid, giving a brief description thereof, stating the name of the person against whom such taxes were assessed and the amount of the principal sum owing for each year for which there is a delinquency. Upon the payment of the delinquent taxes against any property listed in such resolution, the property against which such taxes were assessed shall likewise be discharged of every obligation to such district and the release thereof may be established by a certificate of the tax assessor and collector of such Fresh Water Supply District certifying that all delinquent taxes against such property have been paid.

Sec. 13. All findings of fact by the Board of Supervisors of any such district in connection with the proceedings herein authorized, when entered upon the minutes of such proceedings, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the existence of such facts and shall be conclusive thereof unless attached in a direct proceeding instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction within the time and in the manner provided by the statutes of this State for election contests.

Sec. 14. Neither the property within the excluded territory nor the owners thereof, shall ever be liable for the payment of any bonds, warrants, or other indebtedness issued or incurred by such Fresh Water Supply District after the segregation and exclusion as herein provided.

Sec. 15. Upon the completion of any exclusion as herein provided all of the property of such Fresh Water Supply District shall continue to be the property of such district and the owners of the property, within the excluded territory shall have no right, title or interest thereto or therein.

Sec. 16. The fact that in different places in the State, portions of water improvement districts have been annexed by municipal corporations furnishing the same services as the water district and that such annexed area may be subjected to additional taxation without being capable of receiving benefits from the operation of the water district, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read three several days in each House be suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force and effect after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the bill.

House Bill No. 718 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 718 ON THIRD READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 633 ON SECOND READING

The Chair laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 633, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 7212, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, providing that when the commissioners' court shall contract with an individual, firm, or corporation for the compilation of taxation data, the compensation of such individual, firm, or corporation shall be paid on a pro rata basis from each fund benefiting by the receipt of any taxes derived from such valuation; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Coker offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 633, page 1, line 37, by striking out the word "shall" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "may," and by adding the word "county" after the word "each."

Amend House Bill No. 633, page 1, line 34, by adding after the word "court" the following:
"of any county with a population of not less than Twenty Thousand Six Hundred Twenty (20,620), and not more than Twenty Thousand Six Hundred Seventy-five (20,675) who"

The amendments were severally adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the bill.

House Bill No. 633 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 905 ON
SECOND READING

The Chair laid before the House, on it second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 905, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing the compensation of sheriffs in all counties of the State of Texas having a population of not less than twenty-five thousand, five hundred and forty (25,540) and not more than twenty-six thousand and fifty (26,050), according to the last Federal Census, in which there are no district attorneys; providing for the appointment by such sheriffs of such counties of at least one (1) special deputy sheriff and one (1) deputy sheriff; prescribing the powers and duties of such deputies; fixing the compensation therefor; providing mode and manner of payment of such salaries; providing that this Act shall be cumulative of all other acts not in conflict herewith; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict to the extent of the conflict only; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Rhodes offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 905 by changing the population brackets to read as follows:

"In counties having a population of not less than 26,600 and not more than 25,889."

Amend House Bill No. 905, Section 1, line 9, by striking out the words and figures "36,000" and insert in lieu thereof the words and figures "3600," and in line 10 of the same section strike out the words and figures "42,000" and insert in lieu thereof "4200."

The amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 905 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 905 ON
THIRD READING

Mr. Rhodes moved that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House Bill No. 905 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

SENATE BILL NO. 362 ON
SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 362, A bill to be entitled "An Act to fix the maximum rate of tax to be levied in all Independent School Districts having a scholastic population of not more than six hundred forty (640); etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Knight offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend S. B. No. 362 by striking out all below the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. In all Independent School Districts having a scholastic population of not more than six hundred forty (640) and not less than six hundred thirty (630), according to the 1940-1941 Scholastic Census, located in any county having an area of 495 square miles the School District Trustees of such School Districts shall have the power to levy, and cause to be collected, the annual ad valorem tax of not to exceed One Dollar and fifteen cents ($1.15) on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property of the districts as fixed by the Board of Trustees for such districts.

"Sec. 2. In all such school Districts, it shall be lawful for the School District Trustees to issue time warrants in a sum of not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), which shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum.

"Sec. 3. The sum of fifteen cents (15¢) out of the tax above provided for shall be set aside in a special fund to be used for the specific and sole purpose of paying the interest on said warrants and to liquidate said warrants as they mature, and no tax in excess of One Dollar ($1.00) shall ever be levied unless such excess is for the purpose of paying the time warrants and interest thereon herein authorized.

"Sec. 4. The taxes hereinabove imposed shall never be levied, collected, abrogated, diminished, or increased, and no bond or bonds shall be issued thereunder until such action has been authorized by a majority of the qualified taxpaying voters of such districts, voting at an election to be held for that purpose.

"Sec. 5. If any section, sentence, clause or part of this Act shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, section, clause or part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any other sentence, section, clause or part thereof may be declared invalid.

"Sec. 6. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendar create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes and with the body of the bill.

Senate Bill No. 362 was then passed to third reading.

MURRAY, Vice-Chairman.

SENT TO THE GOVERNOR

April 29, 1941

House Concurrent Resolution No.

In Memory of
S. H. Howeth, Sr.

Mr. Ferguson offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 239, In Memory of S. H. Howeth, Sr.

Whereas, on April 24, 1941, surrounded by his family, the noble and beneficial career of S. H. Howeth, Sr., was closed by death; and

Whereas, The passing of this honorable, beloved, and noble man was felt with keen sadness by those who loved him and felt the warmth of his charity and good deeds; and

Whereas, He was born in Orange, Texas, on May 30, 1857, and thereafter moved to the Roquemore Community in Rusk County, Texas, where he united with the Roquemore Baptist Church and served as its clerk for fifty years; and

Whereas, His reputation as an outstanding citizen, a community leader, and a holder of positions of trust spread throughout the county and State; his lovable personality and gracious manner won him the esteem of all those who were privileged to know and serve with him; and

Whereas, He was the father of sixteen children, nine of whom are still living; forty-four grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; stepfather of five children; raised two orphans and helped to raise four others; and

Whereas, S. H. Howeth, Sr., is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laura Howeth; four daughters, Mrs. Ara Rogers, Galveston, Texas, Mrs. Alma Wagstaff, Mrs. Betty Sue Griffith, and Mrs. Josie Bell Barnwell of Henderson, Texas; five sons, Prior, Pen, Dack, Luke, and Sam Houston, Jr.; five stepchildren, Mrs. Dessie Sanders, Mrs. Nannie Myrtle Pool, John D. Nimrod, and David McKinney; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That the Members thereof deeply regret the passing of this distinguished and public spirited citizen and extend their sincere sympathy to his bereaved family; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House be instructed to send to the bereaved wife of S. H. Howeth, Sr., a copy of this resolution, and that this resolution be spread on the memorial pages of the House Journal of today and that when the House adjourns today that it do so in memory of and in silent tribute to S. H. Howeth, Sr.

The resolution was read second time and was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

In Memory of
Mrs. S. W. Billingsley

Mr. Stanford offered the following resolution:

H. S. R. No. 235, In Memory of Mrs. S. W. Billingsley.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe in His divine wisdom called from this earth a distinguished pioneer, Mrs. S. W. Billingsley, affectionately known as "Cousing Mary," on April 27, 1941, in Bastrop, Texas; and

Whereas, "Cousin Mary" Billingsley was born March 12, 1856, near the present town of Shiner, the only child of Edwin Turner by his wife Mariah (O'Neal) Turner. Her parents moved to old Bastrop when she was an infant and she was reared there; and

Whereas, "Cousin Mary" is a descendant of a pioneer family who came to Texas in two large wagon trains in 1827 and 1829, respectively; settling in Stephen Austin's Colony on the Colorado River and in Green DeWitt's Colony. The Turners' land grants spread through Travis, Bastrop, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Lavaca, Jackson, and Victoria Counties; and

Whereas, She is survived by two sons, T. G. Billingsley, Conroe; Kenneth Billingsley, McAllen; two daughters, Mrs. R. R. Sapp, Bastrop; Mrs. R. B. Morris, Montgomery, Ala.; one half-sister, Mrs. W. E. Ware, Austin; two half-brothers, T. K. Dixon, Sr., and S. F. Dixon, both of Houston; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, That we express our grief in the passing of this beloved friend and neighbor; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, together with a copy of an article concerning the history connected with her life in the "Frontier Times," March issue, 1939, be spread upon the House Journal of today in memory of the deceased, and that copies of this resolution be mailed to the surviving members of her family.

STANFORD,
CARRINGTON,
KELLY,
SMITH of Bastrop.

The resolution was read second time and was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

MRS. MARY E. BILLINGSLEY
Pioneer Mother

By Maude Wallis Traylor.

There are only too few pioneers living today, who have actually seen Texas history in the making; and especially one with a memory so clear and accurate she can recite enough Texas history and tradition offhanded, in one hour, as to keep a reputable genealogist and an amateur historian very busy two whole years, tracing, connecting, proving, and recording same.

Mrs. Billingsley, or "Cousin Mary," as she is affectionately known to a large connection of relatives, can show a pioneer lineage that might make a few of us just a little envious, and has documentary proof of three of her father's Mayflower ancestors, Captain Myles Standish, Edward Doty, and James Rogers. She also has proof of her direct descent from Humphrey Turner, who came from England and settled in Plymouth in 1628. He prospered, as did his descendants, and in time they intermarried with the descendants of many other old Plymouth families, such as Kenelm Winslow, Plymouth, 1628; Robert Coronet Stetson, Plymouth, 1631; John Hudson; and Rev. John Miller, all settling in Plymouth by or before 1635, all of which just goes to show how so many of the early Texas pioneers came of good old American stock. Therefore, a history of "Cousin Mary's" various relatives, in the early days of Texas, sounds like a regular Texas history lesson, and a review at that.

They came to Texas in two large wagon trains, one in 1827, settling in Stephen Austin's Colony on the Colorado River, and the other in December, 1829, settling in Green DeWitt's Colony; and there were so many of them their land grants spread out all the way through Travis, Bastrop, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Lavaca, Jackson, and Victoria Counties.

"Cousin Mary" was born near the present town of Shiner, Texas, March 12, 1856, the only child of Edwin Turner by his wife Mariah (O'Neal) Turner. Her parents moved to old Bastrop when she was a few months old, and she was reared in this old town, rich in an environment of history and tradition, dear to the hearts of many Texas pioneers, and of particular interest to all historians.

Her great-grandfather, the first Winslow Turner of Pembroke, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, was a sailor on the frigate "Deane," commanded by Capt. Samuel Nicholson in the American Revolution; and another great-grandfather, William Standish, the great-grandson of Captain Myles Standish and Edward Doty, was a private in Captain John Turner's company, of Col. Cotton's Regiment, doing duty in Rhode Island in the American Revolution.

The above Winslow Turner married Molly Standish, the daughter of William Standish, in Pembroke, 1785, and they had four children: Winslow, Jr., Deborah, Sally, and Adam. These are the "four children" referred to by Myles Standish in his "The Standishes in America," page 16 (Pub. 1895). They left Pembroke, the year of 1800, for one of the only two small settlements west of the Mississippi and north of the Missouri rivers. Molly, the young wife, died on the way, but Winslow and his four children reached that far-away small fort and trading post, later called Fort Wood, near the present town of Troy in Lincoln County, Missouri.

Winslow Turner received a Spanish grant of land near Fort Wood, established a home and reared his four children, in spite of extreme hardships and continuous Indian wars. Like the majority of those early pioneers, his children married young. His oldest son, Winslow, Jr., married a young widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, with two small children, Malkijah and Teresa, and he reared these two along with his and Elizabeth's eight in Lincoln County, Missouri. He was a veteran of the British War of 1812, having been in Captain Isaac Van Bibber's Company of Infantry, Louisiana Militia.

His daughter, Deborah, married Ahijah M. Highsmith, one of Col. Daniel Boone's noted scouts of "The Missouri Mounted Rangers," War of 1812, and they had five children when they came to Texas in 1827, one of whom was Ben, whose life as an early Texas pioneer and Indian scout was so ably written by A. J. Sowell in his "Texas Indian Fighters," sometime in the nineties. Sally, the other daughter of Winslow Turner and Molly Standish, married Stephen Cottle, of a family so numerous in St. Charles County, Missouri, a town was called "Cottleville" for them. Adam Turner married in Missouri before he came to Texas. His wife's name is unknown, also the names of his children, except Elizabeth, who married her first cousin, Ben Highsmith, and in the U. S. Census of 1850, of Bastrop County, Texas, she gave Missouri as the place of her birth.

It is interesting to note that a Zadock Woods and his brother-in-law, Joseph Cottle, received two of the oldest Spanish grants in Missouri, later Lincoln County. These grants joined, and the men were Winslow Turner's neighbors. His daughter, Sally, married Joseph Cottle's son, Stephen.

Old Fort Wood was established on Zadock Wood's land, later used by Lt. Zachary Taylor, who was later General Taylor and President of the United States. This same Zadock Woods came to Texas at an early date, and built another Fort Wood on his land in Fayette County. His son, Leander, was killed in the battle of Velasco; and later, this white-haired, eighty-year-old Zadock was murdered with Dawson's men; his son, Gonzalvo, escaping, while his son Norman was taken prisoner in the same battle of Salado, and carried down into Mexico, where he died in the terrible old Perote prison in 1842.

When peace came following the British War of 1812, Missouri Territory experienced a regular boom and grew unbelievably fast. The national changes of ownership passed almost unnoticed by the inhabitants, and the counties, St. Charles, Howard, Montgomery, and Lincoln were created by the year of 1820, the year Missouri became a State. It was about this time that the colonization project of Moses Austin in Texas caused a great excitement in Missouri, where the Austins lived and were well known. The Turner and Highsmith families were well-to-do farmers, and they planned to sell their homes and come to Texas. A tradition in the Turner family is that young Winslow Turner, then a married man with six to eight children, had an agreement or a contract with Moses Austin to bring a wagon train of colonists to Texas from Missouri. The sudden death of Moses Austin, followed almost immediately by the death of the older Winslow Turner, changed all plans for immigration to Texas. But after some two years of delay, young Winslow, now Winslow Turner, Sr., entered into an agreement with Moses Austin's son, Stephen, and worked for him in his colonization plan in far-away Texas.

"Cousin Mary" Billingsley says she has heard the story repeated many times in her youth that her grandfather, Winslow Turner, Sr., brought the Zadock Woods family to Texas and several others, whose names appear in Stephen Austin's Old Three Hundred. When Ben Highsmith recited the story of his life to A. J. Sowell in the early nineties for publication, he mentioned how the Indians forced his parents to abandon their first home on the Colorado River, some two miles above LaGrange, and how these "outside settlers" were forced to come back to the settlements below for protection, and he also mentioned this was where the Zadock Woods and Stephen Cottle families lived, and it was called "Rabb's Mill," and that just six families were gathered here in a crude little fort hastily thrown up. Ben said these six families were forced almost immediately to flee this place also because the Indians sent out word they would murder all of them "come next moon" and Ben said, "The Cottles stopped at Jesse Burnham's and the Highsmiths at Elliot C. Buckner's. This was in 1829." The above mentioned Stephen Cottle was the one that married Sally Turner, the sister of the Winslow Turner who came to Texas with his large family. Stephen Cottle was one of the colonists Winslow brought to Texas. There are many coincidents in the history of the lives and associations, also of the family relationships of all six or seven of these families that would indicate they all came to Texas together.

And since I am indebted to my cousin, Mrs. Mary E. Billingsley, for the main part of all the foregoing statements, which I have actually proved, I now turn my story over to "Cousin Mary":

"My grandfather, Winslow Turner, Sr., is said to have brought in a wagon train of Missouri settlers for Austin's Colony on the Colorado, including his sister's family, the Ahijah M. Highsmiths, in the year of 1827, as shown by records of requests for land in that year, to be found in the archives of our State Land Office. These records of 1827 show my grandfather, Winslow Turner, Sr., applied for a vacant tract of land on the Colorado River, stating it joined Joseph Duty on the one side and Ahijah M. Highsmith on the other, but there are no records to show whether grandfather ever lived on this land. The record shows Grandfather Turner brought in another wagon train of Missouri people, including his own family, in December of 1829. I have heard my father, Edwin Turner, tell how this wagon train of Missouri people, all relatives, crossed the Sabine River on a raft of logs the day before Christmas, as they entered Texas.

"They had expected to receive lands in Stephen Austin's second colony on the Colorado River, but there was not land and room for all of them, so the Cottles and Highsmiths received lands in the Austin Colony and Grandfather Turner and several others came on to the DeWitt Colony.

"The Empresario Green DeWitt's land office was at Gonzales, and that is where Grandfather Turner received a grant of more than four thousand acres, lying north of Gonzales. His young son, Winslow, Jr., received a single man's grant at the same time, and those two grants are today the two Winslow Turner Surveys of Gonzales County. His young stepson, Malkijah Williams, received a grant in Jackson County the same year, that is the Malkijah Williams Survey, as did his young son-in-law, Sam Highsmith, being the Samuel Highsmith Survey of Jackson County.

"It is said that Grandfather Turner built a little home on this land in 1829 and tried to farm, but the Indians burned his home and stole all of his stock, and this was the year the Indians ran all those settlers off their lands, murdering many of them before the others would give up to seek protection with other settlers. The Indians now gave so much trouble the settlers could not farm to raise corn to make their bread, nor could they venture far from home to hunt game that was so plentiful, and they suffered the actual pangs of hunger. I have seen the little steel handmills the first settlers used to grind their corn to make bread. In the archives of University of Texas may be found the following bill of sale: 'One steel mill, price twelve dollars, to the Volunteer Army of Texas, by Winslow Turner, Sr., at Gonzales, October 14, 1835.'

"Grandfather now bought some lots in the town of Gonzales, built another little log house and with his wife and eight children made this their home.

"Great-Uncle Ahijah and Aunt Deborah Highsmith had been forced by the Indians to abandon their home on the Colorado this year of 1829, and first stopped at the home of Great-Uncle Stephen and Aunt Sally Cottle, but almost immediately they were all forced to leave this locality, too, for combined strength of protection against Indians.

"My father's oldest sister, Louisa, married Joseph Duty, one of Austin's Old Three Hundred, about 1830, and Uncle Winslow married Sarah Sowell of Gonzales in 1831. She was a sister of the gunsmith, John Sowell, who made the cannon balls for the famous little Gonzales cannon. She did not live many years, and I never heard of any children from this marriage.

"In the fall of 1835, Grandfather Turner was confined to his bed with consumption, when the call for volunteers was made to defend the town of Gonzales, until runners could bring help from near-by settlements. But his sons Winslow, Jr., Edwin, 15, Hiram, 13, and Stephen, 11, shouldered their guns and defended their home town and little cannon against Mexican invasion.

"There are today only two so-called accredited lists of the brave defenders of Gonzales, one by Valentine Bennet, and the other by Charles Mason. It would be well for historians to remember that both those lists were made up, purely from memory, many years after the battle of Gonzales, October 2, 1835, and the names of Edwin and Hiram Turner were omitted purely through failure to remember them, as were a few other brave men.

"Following the battle of Gonzales, a number of Grandfather's neighbors and relatives went on to San Antonio, participating in the battle of Concepcion and Fall of Bexar. Then came the epochal year of 1836, and Grandfather was so low that all of his family were gathered at his bedside in Gonzales, expecting him to pass away at any time. The report of General Santa Anna's approach to San Antonio, followed by the rumor that Colonel Travis and his little band was barricaded in the Alamo, caused great alarm throughout Texas. Later came confirmed news that the Alamo had fallen and every man in it had been put to death, including thirty-three brave men from Gonzales, who had responded to Colonel Travis' eloquent appeal for help. Many of the Gonzales men were Grandfather Turner's friends and neighbors. His nephew, Ben Highsmith, had entered the Alamo with Colonel Travis, and escaped death by having been sent by Colonel Travis to Colonel Fannin with an appeal to destroy the fort in Goliad and come to his aid.

"Cousin Ben said there were both Mexican and Indian scouts on his trail, and the whole country a sea of mud and water, and it took him five days to reach Goliad and return. Upon nearing San Antonio, he stopped on a high hill overlooking the city, to reconnoiter, and saw the Mexican army had arrived and surrounded the Alamo during his absence. Realizing his brave commander and all of his brave comrades were doomed, he wheeled his horse and fled toward Gonzales, pursued by a body of Mexican cavalry for several miles.

"When he reached the Cibolo River, he paused to rest his winded horse, and heard the distant boom of cannon telling him the siege of the Alamo had begun. He then hurried on to Gonzales to report to General Houston, who was greatly distressed to learn this tragic fact. There was already much strife and confusion, in fact open rebellion, among those of the volunteer army who disliked General Houston. They did not consider him a military man, and felt that there were other men present who were more fit to command and lead them.

"History records how General Houston sent young Ben Highsmith on the second fruitless mission to Colonel Fannin at Goliad, this time accompanied by young David Kent, whose father was in the Alamo. When the boys returned to Gonzales to report to General Houston, they found that Mrs. Dickinson had just been brought in to confirm the news of the fall of the Alamo. My father and other relatives always said that no tongue or pen could ever describe the panic of terror that followed the news of the fall of the Alamo, and amid all this the screams of the wives, mothers, and children of the Gonzales men who had fallen in the Alamo could be heard.

"Not only did the settlers fear the cruel and fiendish Mexican officers and soldiers, but they knew they had the Indians to fear also, because the Mexicans had incited them to a general uprising against the whites. Women and children and old people were hastily loaded into ox wagons, mounted on horses or mules, or forced to walk, but all fled for their very lives.

"Grandfather Turner's oldest son, Winslow, Jr., was already in the volunteer army, leaving my father, the next oldest, a boy of 16, to get his dying father and the rest of the family into an ox wagon as best he could and join that band of fleeing, terrified refugees in the great 'stampede' or 'Runaway Scrape,' as the pioneers themselves always called it. I well remember hearing my father tell how he walked the entire distance from Gonzales to the battlefield of San Jacinto; of how Grandfather Turner died somewhere along that terrible flight; that his family had to stop at old Harrisburg to bury him; and how the Mexicans entered Harrisburg as Grandmother and her children fled for their lives, the Mexicans burning the town to the ground.

"Father said he and his family overtook General Houston's army, and he joined the army while Grandmother, his three sisters and three brothers remained with the band of refugees, in sight and hearing of the battle fought soon after they arrived there. My uncles, Winslow Turner, Jr., Sam Highsmith and cousin, Ben Highsmith, fought in this battle, with my father, and it is believed his twelve-year-old brother, Stephen Turner, shouldered a gun and fought also.

"Following the battle of San Jacinto, Grandmother and her children had no home to return to because General Houston had burned the town of Gonzales when he marched out of it, so they found refuge with relatives in old Texana. The league of land Grandfather Turner had received in 1829, north of Gonzales, was completely abandoned and finally lost to the family. It is today one of Texas' richest oil fields.

"Grandmother Turner and my father each received a headright of land in Jackson County, but the family lived in Texana, and it was there that father's three young sisters married. Aunt Mary married Samuel P. Middleton, and they settled on his grant of land and reared a large family in Victoria County. Aunt Sarah married Abraham Clare, said to be the first sheriff of Jackson County. He was a wealthy man, owning much of old Texana, besides a league of land that is named for him. Aunt Betty married Edward Mills, and they lived in Jackson County. Uncle Winslow had married in 1831. Father's half-sister, Teresa Williams, had married Sam Highsmith back in Missouri sometime before they came to Texas, and the survey of land in Jackson County is named for this Samuel Highsmith. Malkijah Williams, father's half-brother, married Cynthia Burns, and they reared a large family in Jackson County.

"I have heard my father describe the battle of Plum Creek in 1842 many times and how he and Cousin Ben Highsmith rescued a white woman from the Indians during this battle. My father was also in the battle of Salado, as were several of his brothers. His brother, Stephen, received a wound in the shoulder in this battle that he suffered from the rest of his life.

"My mother was Maria Kenney, born in Ireland August 15, 1831, and was the daughter of Michael and Mary Kenney. She married John O'Neal in Ireland, and they immediately sailed for America. John O'Neal carried a large sum of money in a belt around his waist and in some way this fact became known. During the voyage he was suddenly missing, and his wife knew he had been murdered for his money and thrown overboard, but she was too young and helpless to do anything about it. She landed at New Orleans, a stranger in a new land, without funds, but knowing how to do fine sewing and make exquisite laces, she soon found employment and made friends. Later she came to Texas, where she met and married my father, Edwin Turner, December 27, 1854. Father died during the first year of the Civil War. Mother was married for the third time, in 1865, to Mr. Wade Hampton Dixon, and they lived in Bastrop, rearing a family there.

"Among the very old settlers in Bastrop whom I knew so well, was my Grandfather Turner's sister, Deborah, who was Mrs. Ahijah Highsmith, and known to us as 'Aunt Debby.' She lived to be very old, as did my father's oldest sister, 'Aunt Louisa,' who married Joseph Duty, one of Austin's Old Three Hundred. They lived at Old Webberville, east of Austin, where Uncle Joseph died in 1855 from the bite of a rattlesnake. Aunt Louisa was rich in land and negroes, and I well remember how she used to visit Bastrop in her fine carriage, and always with a negro slave as driver and another as nurse. The Civil War wiped out most of her wealth. She and her husband and several of their children are buried in an iron-enclosed plot in front of what was formerly the First Methodist Church of Webberville. It is now a negro school.

"Another very old settler I remember was Cousin Ben Highsmith. He lived in Bastrop many years and following the Civil War he drove big freight wagons for my stepfather. He was a kind, gentle old man, and I can remember how he used to wave a great 'blacksnake' whip over the backs of six to eight oxen in one team, popping it to sound like a gun, but was never known to strike one of the animals. Like my Great-Aunt Debby and Aunt Louisa Duty, he lived to be very old, and also like them he loved to talk of those early days in Texas. He has told me so many times the same stories my father told me of the various battles they fought in, and the Indian troubles.

"There was also my husband's uncle, Captain Jesse Billingsley, who lived at McDade, and who used to visit and sit with us often. He relived and talked of 'the days of 1835 and 1836 many times and always remembered where and under whom all my relatives had fought, in all battles and Indian raids of early Texas. Captain Billingsley, or 'Uncle Jesse,' as he was known to us, hated General Houston violently, and used to get wildly excited as he relived his early campaigns and battles, never failing to cuss General Houston if his name was mentioned. He blamed him bitterly for the senseless burning of Gonzales, and all those settlers' homes and ferries as he retreated toward the Sabine River and safety. He also blamed General Houston for not engaging Santa Anna in a battle, either at Gonzales or long before they reached San Jacinto. This opinion was shared by every relative, pioneer, or descendant of same, that I have ever known or heard of, in all the more than eighty years of my life as a pioneer Texian.

"Captain Jesse Billingsley, commanding Company C of the First Regiment of Texas Volunteers, said when they reached the famous San Jacinto, General Houston was still in favor of further retreat, while his officers and men were so bitterly opposed there was threatened rebellion and selection of another leader. Captain Billingsley said the famous battle cry, 'Remember the Alamo,' and 'Remember Goliad,' was born out of this very fact and bitterness of discussion, and he himself used that very expression to some of his own men just before the battle, and it was his own company that first raised that famous battle cry of 'Remember the Alamo,' and 'Remember Goliad,' that swept over the Texian battlefield like a flame.

"Another thing old Texans and veterans of the Revolution blamed General Houston for was his negligent attitude toward having all the men who fought under him at San Jacinto recognized and rewarded for same. Many of them were not in any military company, having merely grabbed a gun and fallen in with the army somewhere along that line of retreat, while many others joined the army after it reached San Jacinto, and all those men had families among the refugees, homeless and destitute on that prairie of mud and water, exposed to a cold rain. Naturally, they rushed off to find them immediately after the battle, and to return to their hastily abandoned homes, if their homes had not been burned by order of General Houston.

"The whole world knows of General Houston's treatment of the men of the unfortunate Mier Expedition in 1842, for which Texas veterans called him names that do not look well in print.

"And so, in conclusion of my memoirs covering the early days of Texas, some of it more than a hundred years old, much of it more than seventy years ago, and the rest more than half a century, I want to say: I have been greatly surprised at some of the history set forth in text books, of so-called Texas history, and taught to my grandchildren. Many characters and actual facts in these textbooks have been wrapped in such a haze of romantic slush as to completely obliterate the actual truth and cause it to be lost sight of entirely."

And now I will take up my story where Cousin Mary left off:

Bear in mind, Mrs. Billingsley did not learn any of the foregoing, or any history from a book. She learned the story of the American Revolution from her father's aged aunt, Mrs. Deborah (Turner) Highsmith, who had heard it from her own father, the first Winslow Turner, who was a sailor boy on the Continental frigate Deane. The early history of Texas was taught her by her father and other relatives who lived and helped to make that history. The Civil War overshadowed four years of her childhood, followed by the terrible years of Yankee Carpetbaggers and so-called "Reconstruction" days. And Mrs. Billingsley has a clear memory of all the various political parties and campaigns, of cholera and yellow fever epidemics, panics and financial depressions, droughts, floods, fires, and earthquakes, Spanish-American and World Wars, and can recite the history of the killing of Sam Bass, and the famous Sutton and Taylor feud.

Since the death of her husband, Samuel W. Billingsley, some two years ago, at the age of eighty-six, she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Morris, of San Antonio. Her other daughter, Mrs. Bob Sapp, lives at Bastrop. One son, Turner Billingsley, lives at Conroe, and the other son, Kenneth Billingsley, lives in McAllen, where he has been the express agent for some years.
